The Final Quarter...

Greetings;

Hard to believe it but here we are in the final quarter of 2009! How has this year been for you? You may have a sense of where you are with your business but do you really know? How current is your profit and loss, or income and expense report? Is your balance sheet current? How did you do in your wealth building plan?

If you are like the majority of business owners you may not know the answers to these questions - either because your reports aren't current or because you haven't looked at them. The reasons for this are many.

Maybe you don't have time to keep your numbers current. Maybe you have no interest in or knowledge of how to put your numbers together. Maybe you have the numbers but you don't know how to interpret the information and use it for decision making. Or maybe you never look at the numbers because you are afraid of the story they are telling you.

The truth is without these numbers you are running blind, telling yourself whatever you want to hear. In this final quarter you are going to want to know what your numbers are truly telling you so you are set up to win. So you are not only able to plan for the best possible tax strategies for this upcoming tax season but so you are also able to use these numbers to forecast forward your new year for success!

The good news is it's not too late! At Abundance we offer a review of your numbers whether you are a bookkeeping client or not! You will want to call us now so we can support you with this valuable review that will set you up to win not only for this tax season but also for your upcoming year!

Looking forward to hearing from you soon!
